Welcome!

Welcome to another of our monthly newsletters. It has been quite snowy in this part of the country and Valentine's Day is likely to be quite cold, as well.

It is a pleasure to connect with you here on the first of every month. There is always so much to show you. We've been adding lots of new items to our inventory. This month we have some new kits and new magazines.

TALLIAFERRO Classic Needleart

Pomegranate Tree Sampler

Talliaferro's third design is here! What a colorful design!

"Pomegranate Tree Sampler" is here and ready to send to you. As with the other Talliaferro designs, you can purchase the pattern ($30) by itself or both the pattern and Appleton pack together ($55).

If it isn't on our website yet, just let me know you want it and I'll send it right out to you.

Kacoonda Kits

"Pin Bin"

This "Pin Bin" is Kacoonda's newest kit. Isn't it a great idea! I'd never seen a 'pin bin' before, but love that the threads can be in the bin and not inadvertently pulled out while hanging on the outside of an ordinary pincushion. I love this idea.

The finished size is approximately 7cms high by 10cms (2.75" x 4"). The kit includes the pattern with detailed instructions and photo, felt, ribbon, silk threads and patchwork fabric for trimming around the top.

For another view, see our blog.

We have them here ready to ship, as well as, more of the "Floppy Feet" kits which sold out twice before.

Pin Bin kit price: $35.

Ottobre Design Magazine

Ottobre Design - children's spring issue 1/2012

This is the current issue of Ottobre.
The next one will be the women's spring/summer issue. It will be released the first of next month. Here's what you'll find in this women's issue:

A touch of vintage and a pinch of bohemian incl. Skirts, pants and tunics for spring, a range of summer dresses and plenty of plus sizes

I'll post pictures and details on our blog when we get them.

Home Sweet Home

What a sensation this new book has caused!

We sold out of our stock twice, but have a new shipment that just arrived.

We also have been told by Country Bumpkin that a kit for this project will be available - most likely later this month. Here is what we know about this upcoming kit:

The kit contains Fabric (external fabric not lining fabric), Threads for Embroidery and Beads. It does not include any cardboard or charms etc.

No price has been set yet - we'll post the price when we get it.

It has not yet been determined if we'll be stocking the kits, but they will be available from Country Bumpkin even if we don't get it.
