

The Woolly Thread Newsletter April 2024

NEW - Linen Twill!

I know it's tricky to impossible to find a source of supply for Linen Twill here in the US. No worries - Woolly Thread has you covered! This beautiful fabric is now available in 3 sizes. It's perfect for Jacobean work. A few examples of pieces stitched on Linen Twill follow. And good news - more fabrics will be added to WT's repertoire shortly.

INSPIRATIONS

One of A Kind Thatched Baskets...

During my time in Cayman Brac, I met up with Annelee who makes these stunning thatched baskets. These would make amazing beach baskets! And what fun it would be to attach a finished piece of stitching to the side. The possibilities...!

I had the pleasure of chatting with Sherry Bremer who stitched these amazing stockings for her family over the years. How lucky are they?! She used Appleton wool on them all and mentioned it is holding up fantastically. Appelon is tried and true no doubt. Amazing job Sherry!!

I'm super excited to be teaching this Zecca bug class at Two's Company in Rock Hill, SC on April 20th. There's one more seat left in class in the event you'd like to join. The focus will be on beading techniques. Hope to see you there!

Thanks so much for your patience while I was out of the office over the past weeks. I'm back now so orders turn around should be back to a day or so provided I have the item on hand. I've also returned with about a zillion ideas for Wooly Thread - stay tuned. Please reach out if you'd like to see any items added to the line-up. And thanks so much for all your support. I'm so appreciative for each and every one of you. It's so much fun to share my stitching passion with you all! Until next time - Best, Deb.
